CHURCH IS BLAMED FOR EMPTY PEWS

Evangelist Ham States
Are No Easy Jobs For Worthwhile Things

BIG CROWD AGAIN HEARS SPEAKER

Ramsay Appeals That Best In Everything
Belongs To Us

Tabernacle Announcements
A nursery has been opened at the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of relieving the mothers of the worry of a fretting child during the services. Every mother is urgently requested by the evangelistic party and by the local executive committee to avail themselves of this convenience. Every effort is being made to do away with all unnecessary noise and disturbance during the tabernacle services. The tabernacle is connected with the nursery by telephone and any mother will be promptly notified in case of emergency.

Song service starts promptly tonight at 7:45. Every singer urged to be in their places so that permanent assignment of seats may be made as soon as possible.

Special services for the young ladies will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Central Baptist church led by Mr. John C. Cowell, Jr., of Fayetteville, N. C.

Tonight Dr. Ham continues his series of "Foundation Messages."

Regular morning service tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Tomorrow at the noon hour Mr. Ramsay will speak at the L. & N. shops.

Evangelist Ham was greeted by splendid audiences for Monday. At 10 A. M. he spoke on "Sins of Joshua." He stated that most people think of Joshua only as a great leader and a good man, but that all good men had faults and committed sins. He cataloged Joshua's sins as carelessness, presumption, and discouragement. "God's People," he said "are to blame for the conditions of today, for empty pews and for the lack of spirituality and for the lack of interest. Joshua was guilty of presuming that spiritual conditions were all right and that the job was easy. There are no easy jobs for worth while things. He was also guilty of the sin of discouragement." He made a plea that all Christians be optimistic.

John C. Cowell, Jr., held a splendid service for young women at the Central Baptist church at 5 p. m. He has no set program. These will be continued each day and will grow in interest. Mr. Ramsay, in his unique way, won his crowd and put them in a good humor for the sermon during the song service last night. He made an appeal that we have the very best of everything of its kind and told of his recent visit to John Wanamaker's big department store in Philadelphia which covers a city block and is many stories high, while Mr. Wanamaker started at $1.50 per week.

The subject of the evening sermon was "Worldliness" and the text was taken from II Corinthians 4:3. He is still speaking of the three principal foes of man, the world, the flesh and the devil. He stated that very few people understood the meaning of the world. The world is always used in an evil sense in the Bible. "The whole world lieth in the evil one." It refers to the system that has been built up on the earth and which absorbs the affections of men and their interests and causes them to be interested in that which is temporal and material rather than that which is spiritual and eternal.

Mr. Ham is not sensational and is not resorting to tricks and stunts to draw his crowds. His messages are Biblical and are laying the foundation for his work that is to follow.

He states that while they are not

President Receives Beck On European Affairs

Upon his return from England, where he was admitted to the London bar in order to argue a case of war claims in which the United States was the defendant, Solicitor-General James M. Beck called on President Coolidge at the White House to discuss the situation in Europe. He was closeted with Mr. Coolidge for two hours.

VANDY'S MATERIAL IS GOOD SAYS HARDAGE

While here on a visit to relatives, on his way to Asheville, N. C., for a two weeks vacation, Lewis Hardage, the well known football coach, stated this morning that upon his return from Asheville he would assist in the organization and training of the Vanderbilt football team of next season, in connection with his duties in establishing an agency in Nashville for the Jordan Automobile Company.

Mr. Hardage is driving through in one of the latest designed cars of the Jordan Company, a blue one evidently built for speed and endurance. In speaking of the baseball pennant prospects, Mr. Hardage said that he was interested mostly in football, but that he supposed the two New York City teams would be the contenders for the world's championship again this year.

GILBERT GUEST OF THE LILLY COMPANY

E. P. Gilbert, well known druggist and travelling salesman, has returned from Indianapolis, Ind., where he was the guest for a week, with a number of other drug salesmen, of Eli Lilly, the head of the well known manufacturing concern bearing the name of Eli Lilly.

Mr. Gilbert was asked to be the guest of Mr. Lilly, because of his winning distinction in a few months contest, in sales of the products of the Lilly company.

Mr. Gilbert said that his week in Indianapolis was the first week of his life he ever spent when he was not allowed to spend a cent.

He stated that he did manage to slip a chance and buy three newspapers when his host was not looking. "Fifteen cents" stated Mr. Gilbert, "is what it cost me to live a week at the finest place I ever saw. I never expect to live that well and that cheaply again. We were not even allowed to pay railroad fares. I think I will try to get into another contest, if the Lilly people put one on."

Farmers and business men of North Alabama must stand ready for a second battle against the cotton leaf worm harder than the first is the warning issued by Dr. E. W. Hinds of Auburn, after an inspection trip through Cullman and Morgan Counties. Dr. Hinds concluded his work in this county late yesterday afternoon and departed for Madison County where he will look over the crops of that county.

Dr. Hinds, one of the best posted crop experts in the South, came to North Alabama to get first hand information on the condition of the cotton crop of this section, followed the first visit of the leaf worm. Dr. Hinds also was interested in the damage of the boll weevil.

The farmers and business men waged a splendid fight against the worm on its first appearance. Dr. Hinds declared, and he warmly congratulated them on the spirit of co-operation shown. The work already done will pay dividends of 1,000 per cent, he said. Every dollar spent in the poisoning campaign will pay a dividend of $10, he declared.

Second Crop Near.
Attention now must be given to the approaching "second invasion" of the worm. Dr. Hinds warned. The second generation of worms now is beginning to hatch and will be in the fields within the next few days. The period from September 1 to September 10 is considered by Dr. Hinds as very critical. Upon the manner of action against the pests will hinge largely the fate of the cotton crop this year he believes.

Poisoning should be continued at least until September 15, whenever the pests appear, he declared. At least 40 per cent of the yield will be at the mercy of the pests during that time, unless the farmers exercise special care. The second fight will be even harder than the first, Dr. Hinds said. He pointed out that it is possible to get poison now and suggested that farmers insure a supply now, while they are able to get it in quantities. He praised the co-operation being shown by the two local oil mills and suggested that cotton planters keep in touch with the two plants so a supply of poison will be available when it is most needed.

Birmingham Votes On Jitney Plan

(By Associated Press)
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., August 28—Birmingham today is voting to decide whether jitneys shall operate in competition with the street railway system. Voting started off at a lively rate as soon as the polls were opened. The city commission, by ordinance, virtually put the jitneys out of business. Under law the jitney operators petitioned for a referendum and secured the required number of signatures. The election was called.

Under the jitney regime these public conveyances have operated on principal routes of the city. The street railway, already in the hands of receivers, claimed that the jitney competition had sent the system further into economic distress. The jitney operators and their adherents claim that the trolley system was inadequate to handle the city's transportation problem and that modern methods are necessary.

Coolidge Declares Progress Is Made

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, August 28—White house officials said today that President Coolidge believed "good progress" was being made in the effort to avert suspension of work in the anthracite field and saw no reason to lose confidence in the outcome.

NEW YORK, August 28—Governors and governors representative of the anthracite consuming states, conferring here today, adopted a resolution submitted by Governor Cox, of Mass., pledging fullest cooperation with federal administrator in his efforts to supply the country with fuel.

Leader Shot To Death
By Police In Fight
Following Trial

"KID DROPPER" FATALLY HURT

Members Of Band Had Been Held On Suspicion

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, August 28—Several men were shot during a gang fight outside the Essex Market court today, soon after seven members of the notorious "Kid Dropper" gang had been discharged because of inability to connect them with a shooting last week.

The courtroom was thrown into an uproar. A call was sent for police reserves and ambulances.

Members of the gang surrounded a taxi cab which was carrying away some of those discharged. The driver and some of the occupants of the cab were among those shot.

The gangsters were arrested last Thursday night on suspicion of having acted in concert in the shooting of Willie Weiss and Gussie Schwartz.

At that time the courtroom was heavily guarded and the police at the door searched several persons for concealed weapons as they entered. The precautions were the result of a tip that there would be an attempt by the remaining members of the gang to rescue the prisoners.

Jack Kaplan, alias "Kid Dropper," leader of the gang, was shot twice and died at a hospital.

TO BEAUTIFY GOLF CLUB IMMEDIATELY

At an enthusiastic meeting of the directors of the Valley Country club at a local bank last evening, plans were approved for extensive improvements on the property of the club as purchased recently from the Woodard estate.

An architect has been secured, who is to go over the present dwelling on the estate of the club, with a view of making some material changes in it.

A golf expert has been employed to come here and go over the proposed golf course on the property of the club, and lay off a regular 18 link golf course.

The following directors were present at last night's meeting: L. W. Borton, W. W. Fussell, F. S. Hunt, T. A. Bowles, T. M. Jones, Jr., and Charles Rountree.

Train Hits Auto; 4 Fatally Hurt

(Associated Press)
BELLE BUCKLE, Tenn., August 28—N. C. and St. L. southbound passenger train No. 1 crashed into a touring car at the depot crossing this morning, fatally injuring four persons. Mr. and Mrs. James H. Armstrong, Mrs. W. P. Crawford and Mrs. Eva C. Acuff, 82, all residents of Belle Buckle, died at its annual convention here today.

Another Chapter In Broadway's Night Life Is Being Revealed To N. Y. Police

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, August 28—Another chapter in Broadway's night life slowly is being revealed to police in their search for the murdered of John Suthen, a private secretary, who was found dead, a warm pipe in his mouth, day before yesterday.

The freshly dressed women, the presence of cyanide in Suthen's stomach, a third woman known as "Mrs. Suthen" who lived in the apartment and a real "Mrs. Suthen" in New Jersey, were the tangible facts police had to work on.

It was also learned that Suthen, although working at a comparatively small salary, had been paying high rent for more than a year for the Central Park West apartment, which he

LEGISLATURE WILL RECONVENE TODAY

(By Associated Press)
MONTGOMERY, Ala., August 28—Reconvening this afternoon at two o'clock, following their regular week end recess, members of the Alabama legislature are expected to immediately settle down to a week of activity.

Two measures of general importance face the assembly for the week, the Mobile port enabling bill and the highway commission. Two bills have been favorably reported in the lower house on the highway commission, one providing for a state commission of 11 members and another in line with the senate bill, which provides for a commission of three members.

The Mobile port development measure, as passed by the house, is before the senate port committee and a report is expected tomorrow.

Probe Of Prices Of Gasoline Urged

(Associated Press.)
MINNEAPOLIS, August 28—A thorough and nation-wide investigation of gasoline prices was decided upon by the national association of attorneys general in a resolution adopted at its annual convention here today.

Probe Of Prices Of Gasoline Urged

Two women were seen in Suthen's apartment by a medical examiner, who went to the spot when the secretary's body was first discovered by a friend, who said he had taken Suthen home in an intoxicated condition the night before.

One of the mysteries confronting the police is how the poison was administered. No glasses showing traces of cyanide had been found in the apartment and this was partially accountable for the police discarding the suicide theory. There was a suggestion that the death potion had been placed in the stem of Suthen's pipe.

No definite motive could be found for the murder, although police stressed the importance of finding the woman seen in the apartment.

FIVE MERGER BILLS REACH LAST STEP

The Acts Are Made
Part Of Code By Executive Action

2 MUNICIPALITIES ARE MADE ONE

Municipal Officers Are Sworn In This Afternoon

The five merger bills, consolidating Albany and Decatur, were signed by Governor Brandon this afternoon at 3:45 and became a part of the laws of Alabama. Under the provision of the act the charter of the city of Albany is vacated, the territory becomes a part of the city of Decatur, both municipalities being united into one, with a commission of three, composed of Mayor Britain and President of the council Sittason, as the governmental authorities.

Persons interested in the movement against consolidation, asked if they had any statement to make regarding possible testing of the bills in court. They had nothing to say.

The consolidation will become effective immediately, but the three commissioners have five days in which to assume office. It was noted that the afternoon that it was not known exactly when they will assume their duties.

Jan. A. Nelson, W. H. Sittason, and E. W. Collier, city clerk, were sworn in at the Central City Bank.

The new commission at its first meeting, elected the following members and adjourned:

E. W. Collier, city clerk, treasurer, W. H. Sittason, city treasurer, E. Kilgore, assistant clerk, R. Riggsby, police chief, Melvin Riggsby, assistant chief, Melvin Riggsby, attorney, W. M. Callahan, city attorney, J. W. Petty, street commissioner, A. F. Bryant, assistant mayor, Mrs. W. R. Nelson, city clerk, Patrolmen, Bryant, Sittason, Sittason, Cox, Thompson, Sittason.

DEAD WOMAN WAS IN FEAR OF LIFE

(Associated Press.)
DENVER, Colo., August 28—Mrs. Roy McGleone, shot to death last yesterday with her husband, Miss Gascovie, in the McGleone apartment, lived in constant fear of her life and two attempts recently had been made to kill her, Roy McGleone, a Denver athletic instructor, declared today on his return from a mountain resort where he was visiting when the two women were slain.

Police found no evidence of a struggle.

E. C. Rosser, a neighbor, told police he recently heard Mrs. McGleone say she feared her husband was jealous of "Joe." Rosser said he did not know who "Joe" was.

Alfred Calone, brother-in-law of Mrs. McGleone said that both Mrs. McGleone and Miss Gascovie spent Sunday night at the Calone home and that he had taken them to Mrs. McGleone's home Monday morning.

Calone told police of an Italian, the only person in the world he believed, who could have committed the crime, "Lillian (Mrs. McGleone) told me last night that when she and Miss Gascovie were leaving a park dance recently that an Italian leaped upon the running board of the car and struck her. One eye was still black and while riding over home this morning she expressed fear that her husband would injure or perhaps kill the Italian when he returned.

Calone said that Mrs. McGleone and Miss Gascovie were the best of friends and that he was confident that they had not quarrelled. Calone and friends of the slain woman scout the theory of a possible murder and suicide.

 my kidneys in a weakened condition.
 My kidneys didn't act right and the secretions scalded in passage and were highly colored. There was a lameness through my back and I couldn't get up when I was down. When I stooped, such sharp pains took me in my back, I almost sank to my knees.
 There was a heavy dull ache throughout the small of my back which made me restless at night and I couldn't sleep.
 A friend recommended Doan's Kidney

Amusements

PRINCESS TODAY

Herbert Rawlinson, who has won the underworld a lot more sympathy than it probably deserves by the hu- man qualities that he has displayed in the many crook parts that he has portrayed on the screen, will be seen in the role far affied from the type in which he is so well known at the Princess theater Friday.

The Universal star makes his bow to the motion picture public in the role of a knight of the squared circle. The title of the play is "The Victor," so there's no masking the outcome of his fistio engagements. He wins the crown hands down.

Rawlinson is a wonderful all-round athlete and a clever boxer, but this is his first screen appearance in a prize- fight role.

DELITE TODAY

As "The Shooting Gambler" Wm. S. Hart appears in one of the most inter- esting dramas in which he has ever starred. The human side could hardly be improved upon. There is romance, much gun-fighting and many episodes of human interest. For "Bill" Hart as Jack-o'-Diamonds must live down the hardships which his past reputation as a gambler subject him to. And Hart interprets with reality this role which calls for a combination of the rough- and-ready characteristics of a gambler and the finer emotions of tenderness and love for his fellow beings in dis- tress.

This play, which represents Hart in the role of a good man—a gambler who conquers—affords a plot rich in romantic appeal with a continuity of action that will leave a lasting im- pression.

Miss Jesse Herring of Bashamas Chapel, who has been ill, is better.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Williams spent the weekend with relatives in Bash- ams Chapel.

Little Miss Gertie Wilson who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Theo Put- nam has returned to her home in Bir- mingham.

J. W. Clopton is in Montgomery to- day.

Miss Unity Dancy has returned from a three weeks visit to Coleman, Texas.

Mrs. L. Mardis and children are visiting in Tuscumbia.

Miss Virginia Carswell will leave next week for Birmingham, where she will be an instructor at Howard Col- lege.

Mrs. Virginia Pride will leave soon to visit relatives in Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown and chil- dren and Early Phinixy, Jr., who are spending a while on Trinity Mountain are expected home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sandlin and son P. H. Jr., of Moulton, were the week- end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Weidner.

Mrs. J. C. Cole has returned to her home in A-tah, Ala., after a three weeks visit to Mrs. O. L. Newsom.

NEWS OF MOULTON AND LAWRENCE COUNTY

MOULTON, Ala., August 23.—W. C. Bragg, cashier of The Citizens Bank of Moulton became seriously ill last Thursday night and was taken to a Birmingham hospital Friday night by his brother, Dr. John Bragg of Decatur. Latest reports are to the effect that he may not require an operation as it was at first thought and that the trouble is not appendicitis though trouble of that kind seemed to exist.

Plans are on foot to recover the old public school building in Moulton at once as it appears funds cannot be raised at once for erection of the much needed school house for the town. A bill is pending in the legislature that will provide for a special tax levy in the district for the purpose of erecting a school building in keeping with the needs of the town. Funds have been subscribed in the past few days for re-covering and repairing of the county high school building.

J. B. Campbell of Florence was in Moulton Friday in the interests of the rehabilitation work for the Federal government, two men near Moulton were the objects of his special visit.

Wert Bayne, a former county high school graduate and Clovis Bracken, also of the county high school spent the week end in and near Moulton. Wert Bayne has been a student at George Washington University, in Washington, D. C., for the past year while Clovis Bracken has just secured his A. B. degree from that institution and will teach the next session in the schools of Maryland.

Dr. R. T. Tyler of Athens is conducting a revival at the local Methodist church and having large audiences; his discourse Sunday night was a stirring appeal for law enforcement and right living based on the conduct of David and his son Absalom.

A pleasant surprise to the many friends of Miss Willie Perry occurred early Sunday morning when she was married to Mr. Will Clay, of Hamilton, Alabama. Mr. Clay is a teacher in Marion county. Miss Perry was a teacher in Lawrence county and the happy union was the outcome of association in study at the Florence State normal. The two left immediately after the ceremony was pronounced, by Judge W. R. Jackson in the home of the bride, for their Marion county home.

Mrs. Maggie Windham who has been ill for some time is now able to be up and about her home.
